

FEDERAL SERVICE

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION
1967

INCLUDING OPPORTUNITIES FOR MANAGEMENT INTERNSHIPS
UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

THE FEDERAL SERVICE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

... is designed primarily as an avenue through which young people with promise may enter the Federal service. If you have a college education or equivalent experience, this examination offers many opportunities. Those of you who qualify will be considered for a wide variety of career fields in various Federal agencies and geographical locations. Over 200 kinds of positions are filled through this one examination. It is, in effect, one application to many employers at the same time. Federal establishments make several thousand appointments each year from this one examination to career positions located in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States. A limited number of overseas positions are also filled from this examination. The Federal service offers excellent opportunity for advancement through its Merit Promotion Program if you demonstrate potential capability for high-level responsibility and leadership.

THIS EXAMINATION OFFERS YOU CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

... to work on programs of national and international importance which challenge your imagination; to be trained for positions of responsibility and leadership; to earn attractive salaries with regular raises and advancement based on merit; to gain professional recognition through your work and to develop professionally in your chosen field; to participate in a modern employee benefits program fully comparable with progressive industry practices including vacation and sick leave, group life and health insurance and an excellent retirement program. Many kinds of training programs are conducted by Federal agencies to help their employees develop themselves. These include on-the-job instruction, classroom training, correspondence courses, and, in some cases, part-time or full-time attendance at colleges and universities. Each Federal agency establishes the kinds of training programs it needs to develop its employees and accomplish its goals. If you are in graduate school or in your senior year at a 4-year college or university and pass this examination, you can be offered an appointment to a position in the Federal career service which will become effective upon graduation.

AS A SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE YOU WILL BE ASSIGNED FOR TRAINING TO

... career positions in such fields as—personnel management
general administration economics and other social sciences
social security administration management analysis
tax collection
electronic data processing
budget management
park ranger activities
statistics investigation (including wage and hour)
procurement and supply
housing management
archival science
adjudication and other quasi-legal work
food and drug inspection

... for additional information refer to the Federal Career Directory—a Guide for College Students. This Directory is available for reference in college placement offices and libraries, and is for sale for 55¢ by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.

meet the requirements stated in the following section entitled Special Provisions for Some College Students and Graduates and, in addition—

You must (1) have completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, a 4-year course leading to a bachelor's degree in an accredited college or university; or (2) have 3 years of experience (including at least 1 year at the GS-4 level or its equivalent) in administrative, professional, investigative or other responsible work which has prepared you to enter into the positions for which this examination is appropriate (experience in the trades and crafts, or in sales work, laboratory testing, drafting, operation of machines, or routine clerical work is not qualifying); or (3) have any equivalent combination of the above education and experience. In combining education and experience, an academic year of study (30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours) will be considered equivalent to 9 months of experience.

For Grade GS-7 ($6,451 a year):

... you must pass the written test and, in addition—

If you meet the education or experience requirements for grade GS-5, you will be rated for grade GS-7 provided you (1) have completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, 1 full year of study at the graduate level leading toward or acceptable for a master's degree at an accredited college or university; or (2) have 1 additional year of experience at the GS-5 level or its equivalent and of the type required above for grade GS-5; or (3) have any combination of graduate study and GS-5 level experience totaling 1 year; or (4) have completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, at least 6 full years of resident college work which meets the full requirements for an LL.B. or higher degree from a recognized law school. If you attain final eligibility as a management intern, you will also be rated eligible in the general part of the examination at GS-7.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR SOME COLLEGE STUDENTS AND GRADUATES

For Grade GS-5:

... As a new experimental program designed to permit employment of outstanding college graduates, you can be rated eligible for grade GS-5 without taking the written test if you have an outstanding academic record as defined below:

(1) you have completed all the requirements for a bachelor's degree within the last 2 years (or will complete such requirements in the next 9 months);

and

(2) you meet one of the following criteria of outstanding scholarship:

(a) have a 3.5 average in all undergraduate courses; or

(b) rank in the upper 10 percent of your class.

In order for the Commission to be able to evaluate this experimental program, if you are appointed under this provision you will be required to take the written test after appointment, unless you have already taken it under this announcement, and your agency will be required to provide to the Commission regular and systematic evaluations of your performance and job adjustment during your first year of employment.

For Grade GS-7:

... If you attain a sufficiently high score in the general written test you can be rated eligible for grade GS-7 provided:

(1) you have completed all the requirements for a bachelor's degree within the last 2 years (or will complete such requirements in the next 9 months);

and

(2) you meet one of the following criteria of superior scholarship:

(a) have a "B" average in all undergraduate courses; or

(b) rank in the upper 25 percent of your class; or

(c) have been elected to membership in one of the national honorary scholastic societies (other than freshman societies) which meet the minimum requirements of the Association of College Honor Societies; or

(d) have attained a score of 600 or better on a Graduate Record Examination Area Test or Advanced Test.

(NOTE.—A score on the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test is not acceptable for this purpose.)

MANAGEMENT INTERNSHIPS

... are also offered. This examination is used to recruit people with potential for special training as management interns. The formal training programs range from a few months to 18 months after the appointment. Initial training is given individually, or in a group situation. Training programs generally include agency orientation, rotating assignments, study outside of regular working hours, special projects, and individual counseling and special assistance in planning career development. The number of management internships available is limited, and only outstanding candidates are rated eligible; therefore, competition for internships is keen. While most management intern positions are located in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, there are some opportunities available in other parts of the country. There are no management intern positions outside the country.

TO QUALIFY IN THE MANAGEMENT INTERM PART OF THE EXAMINATION

... you must demonstrate outstanding potential by passing the general written test and an additional written test, qualifying in a group interview, and being highly recommended through qualifications inquiries sent to persons having a direct knowledge of the education and experience claimed and, in addition—

For Grade GS-7 ($6,451 a year):

You must (1) have completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, a 4-year course leading to a bachelor's degree in an accredited college or university; or (2) have 4 years of experience, as described on page 3 including 1 year comparable to the GS-5 level; or (3) have any equivalent combination of the above education and experience. In combining education and experience, an academic year of study (30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours) will be considered equivalent to 9 months of experience.

For Grade GS-9 ($7,696 a year):

You must meet the requirements for grade GS-7 above, and, in addition (1) have completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, 1 full year of study at the graduate level leading toward or acceptable for a master's degree at an accredited college or university; or (2) have 1 additional year of qualifying experience at a level of difficulty comparable to that of a position at grade GS-7 in the Federal service; or (3) have any combination of graduate study and GS-7 level experience totaling 1 year; or (4) have completed or expect to complete within 9 months at least 6 full years of resident college work which meets the full requirements for an LL.B. or higher degree from a recognized law school.

For more information about Management Intern opportunities see CSC Pamphlet 1, Futures in the Federal Government, which is available in college placement offices, and for sale for 20¢ by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL APPLICANTS

About the written test . . . The general test is a test of verbal abilities and quantitative reasoning. This test will require about 2½ hours. Candidates for management intern will take an additional test on administrative problems and public affairs; this test will require an additional 1¾ hours. Sample questions will be sent to applicants. Additional information about the tests is contained in the booklet Preparing for the Federal Service Entrance Examination. This booklet is available for reference in college placement offices and libraries, and is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Make your application card complete . . . Be sure to show on your application the title "Federal Service Entrance Examination" and the number of this announcement—No. 400. Show also the place where you wish to take the written test. (See the list of places where the test will be held on pages 5 and 6.) The written tests for the general examination and the management intern examination are given on the same day; therefore, only one application should be submitted.

To qualify in the management intern examination, you must take both tests on the same day, even though you have previously qualified in the general examination.

You will be notified when to report . . . After your application card has been received, you will be sent an admission notice showing the exact time and place to report for the written test. This notice will be sent about a week before the test date.

Provision for blind applicants . . . Applicants who are blind should have the word "Blind" entered after the name of the city where they wish to take the test, so that special arrangements may be made to administer the test to them.

Eligibilities from previous examination . . . The lists of eligibles from this examination will supersede those from last year's examination (Announcement No. 369). If you passed the previous examination and are still interested in being considered for appointment, you must apply for this new examination.

Basis of rating . . . Ratings will be assigned on a scale of 100 based on the written test score combined with an evaluation of the education and experience record. As a qualified applicant, you will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex, politics, or any other non-merit factor.

Additional information . . . For additional information of a general nature such as citizenship and physical abilities required, see Pamphlet 4, Working for the U.S.A., available at most places where applications for Federal employment may be obtained.

Study in nonaccredited institutions . . . The successful completion of college study in nonaccredited institutions will be accepted on the same basis as for accredited colleges provided that the State university of the State in which the institution is located accepts the courses and gives advanced credit for them. This evaluation must be obtained by the applicant. (In those States where there is no State university, the evaluation and acceptance of college credit as made by the State department of education will be accepted.)

PLACES WHERE CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS ARE HELD

The written test for the Federal Service Entrance Examination will be given at the places named below.

You may be examined in any city named in the list. Select the place where you wish to take the examination from the list shown below. Then enter the city, State, and correct code number on the application card. For example, a person wishing to be examined in Anniston, Alabama, would show "Anniston, Alabama, 24-00."
